

Thank you for using Superior Threads! We hope that this inventory list will be a great benefit to you.

Here are some basic instructions for using this inventory list:

How to view the inventory list for a particular thread type:

- You should see colorful tabs at the bottom of this screen. Each tab represents a different thread type and is abbreviated based on the name. For example, the tab for Bottom Line thread is 'BL'. Click the tabs to view the various thread types. You may need to click the small arrows in the bottom left-hand corner to be able to view all the tabs. You may also use the Zoom function to see the page better.

How to input my own inventory quantities:

- You are able to click on the fields next to each color and input your inventory quantities. Other fields cannot be edited.

How to print the inventory list:

- If you wish to print the entire inventory list for all products, make sure to select "Entire Workbook" from the print menu.
- If you choose to only print certain lists, select "Active Sheet" from the print menu. You can print the inventory list individually for any thread type.
